DESIGN AFFAIR

LH ♥ LORI MORRIS

words by: Natalia Vilaça

Our obsession with Lori Morris and her Toronto-based design firm, House of LMD, began in 2014 and has since grown into an outright designer crush! Lori's designs embody luxury and glamour, each leaving us beautifully fulfilled, yet forever wanting more. We can't get enough of her seductive sophistication and avant-garde edge. So, for this edition of Design Affair we decided to share a selection of some of our favorite interiors from her stunning portfolio.

Lori Morris is far from your typical designer. Not only does she provide an unparalleled luxury experience to each of her clients, but she is also a master at bringing each of their individual visions to life. For over 30 years she has been creating original and timeless designs. Each project is its own star. The only common thread across Lori's portfolio is her commitment to making each space unique, fabulous, and beyond her clients' dreams.

Known for her opulent designs and "sexy French" style, which of course we adore, another thing we admire about Lori's work is that quality is never second to glamour. Each House of LMD interior features the most exquisite materials and finishes, meticulously planned with a deep appreciation for craftsmanship. Bestill our hearts!

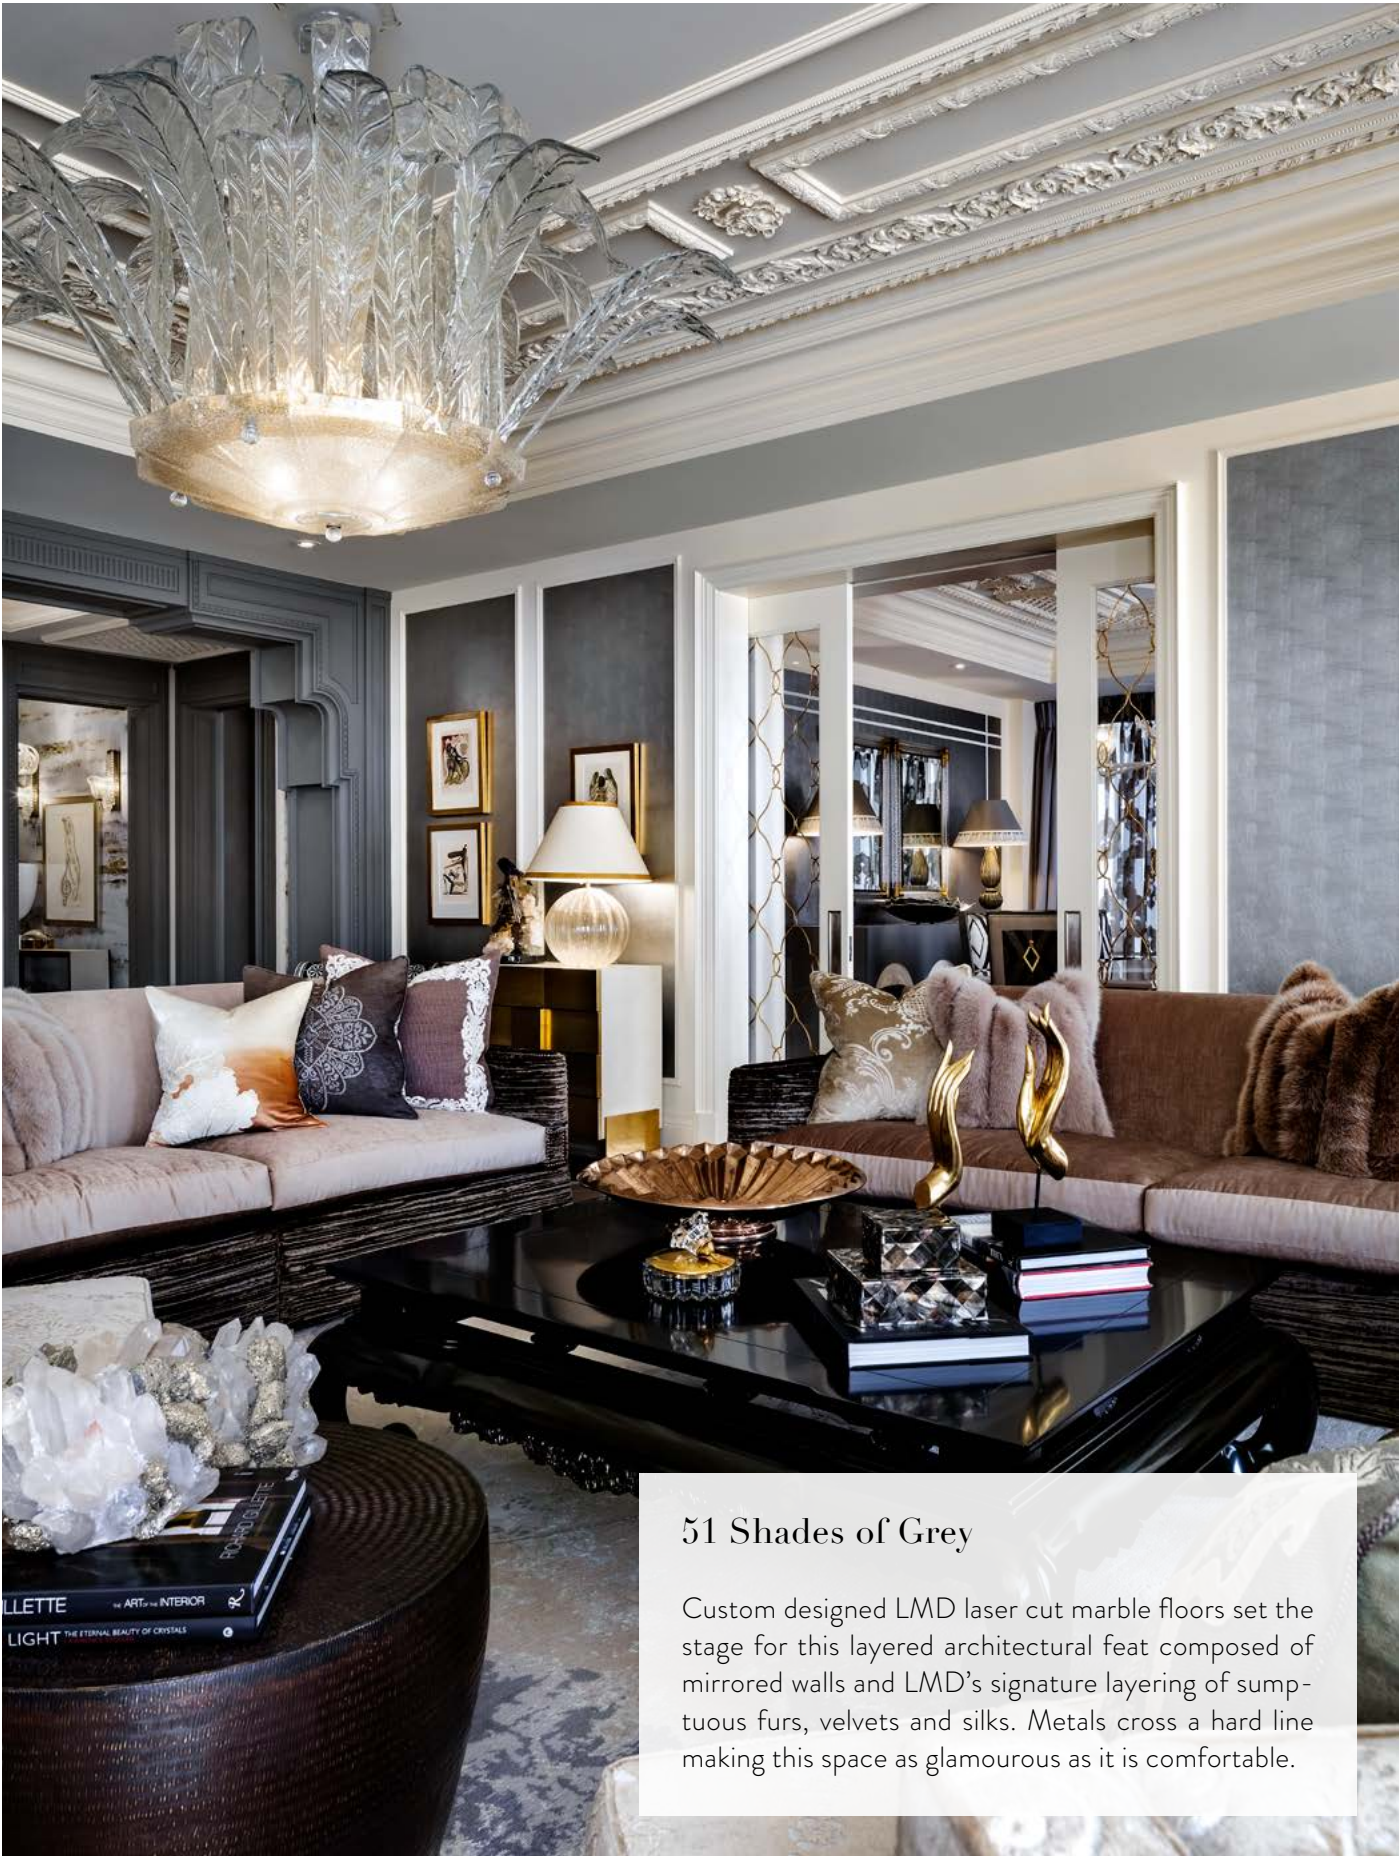

It's easy to see why we love and continue to fall in love with all things Lori! Her fabulousity and "no rules" attitude embody the very essence of KOKET and Love Happens!

Lavender Dreams

Lori creates feelings and this oceanside condo on the coast of Palm Beach is no exception. The client's love of violet is showcased here in this stunning lilac jewel box to blend seamlessly with the watery tones of the sea and sky.

51 Shades of Grey

Custom designed LMD laser cut marble floors set the stage for this layered architectural feat composed of mirrored walls and LMD's signature layering of sumptuous furs, velvets and silks. Metals cross a hard line making this space as glamorous as it is comfortable.

THE HUMAN SOUL.*

She's a Boss in Pink

Pink paradise speaks more for this Boss Lady work space as a place for lavish retreat. Layer me up with sumptuous details and drape me in velvet!

Blond Ambition

This summer retreat gushes gorgeous with a palette of supple charcoal velvet infused with sparkling silver and blond wood. Not just another gorgeous LMD face, the space serves a dual purpose perfect for intimate dining or connect the live edge tables to host large gatherings with your best friends and family.
